

Special events in conjunction with
Gather Out of Star-Dust: The Harlem Renaissance & The Beinecke Library

The library has many programs related to the Harlem Renaissance and the JWJ Collection, many of which are listed below. All events are free and open to the public. Stay up-to-date with relevant information, and additional events by following Beinecke on Facebook and Twitter, and by subscribing to the Beinecke's events and news email list.

Visitors are encouraged to use and follow the hashtag #HarlemRen on social media

Monday, February 20, 4 pm

Professor Roberto Stepto on Aaron Douglas in the Mondays at Beinecke gallery talk and tea series

Thursday, February 23, 4 pm

Yusef Komunyakaa, poetry reading

Saturday, February 25, 1:30 pm

Guided tour of Beinecke and Harlem Renaissance exhibition highlights

Thursday, March 2, 4 pm

Composer Michael Schachter and opera singer Davóne Tines share their process and journey to realizing Langston Hughes' hidden gem 'The Black Clown' for the concert and theater stage.

Saturday, March 4, 1:30 pm

Guided tour of Beinecke and Harlem Renaissance exhibition highlights

Monday, March 6, 4pm

Nancy Kuhl on Miguel Covarrubias in the Mondays at Beinecke gallery talk and tea series

Thursday, March 9, 4 pm

Tonya Foster, Layli Long Soldier, and Safiya Sinclair, poetry readings and discussion

Friday, March 10, 10 am

Roundtable discussion with visiting poets, chaired by Camille Owens and Maryam Parhizkar

Saturday, March 11, 1:30 pm

Guided tour of Beinecke and Harlem Renaissance exhibition highlights

Saturday, March 18, 1:30 pm

Guided tour of Beinecke and Harlem Renaissance exhibition highlights

Saturday, March 25, 1:30 pm

Guided tour of Beinecke and Harlem Renaissance exhibition highlights

Saturday, April 1, 1:30 pm

Guided tour of Beinecke and Harlem Renaissance exhibition highlights

Thursday, April 6, 4pm

Jackie Sibblies Drury, drama reading

Saturday, April 8, 1:30 pm

Guided tour of Beinecke and Harlem Renaissance exhibition highlights

Saturday, April 15, 1:30 pm

Guided tour of Beinecke and Harlem Renaissance exhibition highlights